

INVITATION

International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health

Dear Colleagues,

We kindly invite you to contribute to the development of science and participate in the publication of relevant scientific works in a high-level International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health \(IJERPH\) (ISSN 1660-4601, impact factor 3,390).

Researchers from Panevėžys University of Applied Sciences and Vilnius University in Lithuania together with researchers from the University of Granada developed the Special Issue Exercise and Mental Well-being during the COVID-19 Pandemic in Emerging Adulthood as part of the IJERPH project.

This Special Issue focuses on reports of methodological and experimental work on the science of sport, medicine, and environmental biological sciences, as well as on the application of statistics and psychology, with priority for interdisciplinary papers. Brief reviews on problems of sport, and information on recent developments in research equipment and training aids, will also be published. Papers are invited from researchers, coaches and all authors engaged in problems associated with training effects, selection in sport, and the biological and social effects of athletic activity during various periods of human ontogenetic development.

Manuscripts should be submitted online at www.mdpi.com by registering and logging in to this website. The Article Processing Charge \(APC\) for publication in this open access journal is 2300 CHF (Swiss Francs). Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia are the regions that IJERPH lacks of publication and would like to develop. IJERPH are willing to provide a 10% discount for papers invited from Baltic states and published in Special Issue Exercise and Mental Well-being during the COVID-19 Pandemic in Emerging Adulthood.
